

I am a Deaf adult and greatly appreciate being able to use VRS. It is much better than TTY relay because I can use my native language to communicate. It is also much faster, so hearing people are more willing to use it. I can show emotions through Sign Language, but you can't through TTY. I feel this service should be mandatory! It allows me equal access like hearing people. Thank-you, Kirk Von Loh